AE Farthing, w.c.s., 22 mm.; 4.532 gms.

English farthing of George IV, 1825, with rectangular stamp having crenated edges and bearing the letter, I . D ref: Duffield, "A Trial List of the Countermarked Modern Coins of the World," The Numismatist, XXXIII, 1920, p. 386, no. 1014 -"from a London dealer's list, attributed to Dominica - I.D. presumed to be for Island of Dominica."

Cp. also Wood, AJN, XLVIII, 1914, pp. 102-103,, where I.D. is identified with Desirade, a part of Guadeloupe. Desirade attribution seems highly unlikely; this countermark is not identical. Item listed by Duffield is quite possibly our piece.
